ADVENT

Advent has a twofold character. It is firstly a season to prepare for Christmas, when Christ’s first coming to us is remembered, and secondly a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period of devout and joyful expectation. (LY 39)

During Advent, the playing of the organ and other musical instruments and the decoration of the altar with flowers should be done in a moderate manner, as is consonant with the character of the season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord.

The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony.

HOLY FATHER'S GENERAL INTENTION

For Pilgrims of Hope - Let us pray that this Jubilee strengthen us in our faith, helping us to recognize the Risen Christ in the midst of our lives, transforming us into pilgrims of Christian hope.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE SUPERIOR GENERAL

That the incarnation of Christ may grant us humility and gentleness of heart, as the grace of humility and gentleness was granted to our Patron, St. Francis De Sales. We pray to the Lord.

Advent from 17 to 24 December

1. The weekdays of Advent from 17 to 24 December take precedence over the memorials of Saints, which may therefore be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books (IH. 237-239; JM. 355a.
2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires, it may be appropriate that a Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (IM. 374).

Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited (IM.381).

3. In the Liturgy of Hours :
 - a) The Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, are taken from those prescribed for the season.
 - b) Proper antiphons are assigned for the weekday psalms at Lauds and Vespers.
4. In Eucharistic celebrations likewise proper readings are given for the days from 17 to 24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third week of Advent.

HOLY FATHER'S GENERAL INTENTION

Mission: For the right to an education.

Let us pray for migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE SUPERIOR GENERAL

That the participation, discussions, and decisions of the upcoming XXI General Chapter may renew to live the missionary charism of our Congregation through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, We pray to the Lord.

Weekdays of the Christmas Season

1. On weekdays of the Christmas season from 2 January onwards on which an optional memorial is observed, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the Saint who is inscribed for that day in the calendar or in the Martyrology (IH. 244, IM. 355b)
 2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for various needs and intentions or a votive Mass be celebrated (IM. 376).
Daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted (IM. 381).
 3. In the weekday Office, the Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, and the antiphon at the Middle Hour are taken from those prescribed for the season, before or after the Epiphany as the case may be.

ORDINARY TIME - Before Lent

The weeks of Ordinary Time celebrate no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ. Instead, especially on the last Sundays, celebration is made of the mystery of Christ in all its fullness (cf. LY. 43).

The weekday Lectionary for Mass is taken from Year I (A).

In votive Masses, and in Saturday Masses of Our Lady, vestments may be of the customary proper colour, or of the colour of the day or of the season (IM, 347).

FEBRUARY – 2025HOLYFATHER'S GENERAL INTENTION

General: For Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious life: Let us pray that the ecclesial community might welcome the desires and doubts of those young people who feel a call to serve Christ's mission in the priesthood and religious life.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE SUPERIOR GENERAL

That we may be able to live Our charism, which is "to continue the mission of Christ and His Church by living the spirit and spirituality of St. Francis de Sales in a religious community of missionaries, as lived and envisioned by our Founder." We pray to the Lord.

Lent is a time of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The liturgy prepares the Catechumens for the celebration of the paschal mystery by the various stages of Christian initiation: it also prepares the faithful, who recall their baptism and do penance in preparation for Easter (cf. LY 27).

Lent :

1. The weekdays of Lent from Ash Wednesday to the Saturday before Palm Sunday take precedence over the memorials of saints, which therefore may be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books (IH. 237–239; IM, 355a).
2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (IM. 374). Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are permitted (IM, 381).
3. The Alleluia is always omitted, both in the Liturgy of the Hours and in the celebration of the Eucharist.

4. The Te Deum and the Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) are said or sung on solemnities, on feasts and in particular celebrations.
5. In the weekday Office, the Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, and the antiphon at the Mid Day Hour are taken from those prescribed for the liturgical time.
6. It is not permitted to adorn the altar with flowers, and the organ and other instruments may only be played for the purpose of sustaining singing. An exception is made for Laetare Sunday (Fourth Sunday of Lent), and for solemnities and feasts (CB, 252).
7. For the celebration of marriages, the parish priest should alert spouses to the need to take account of the particular penitential character of this season (OM. 32).
Ash Wednesday is a day of penance for the whole Church of Roman Rite, to be marked by fasting and abstinence from the eating of meat.

HOLYWEEK

1. In the Holy Week the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of his earthly life, from his messianic entry into Jerusalem, until his blessed Passion and glorious Resurrection. Lent continues until Maundy Thursday. With the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Maundy Thursday begins the Easter Triduum, which includes Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and Holy Saturday - centered upon the Easter Vigil, and concluded with vespers on Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection.

The weekdays of this week are dedicated to the celebration of penance, abstaining from celebration of the sacraments of baptism and confirmation, since these have their natural place in the Easter Vigil.

2. The rites of Holy Week, that is to say the blessing and procession of palms, the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Solemn Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday and the Easter Vigil, may be celebrated in all churches and chapels.

In churches other than parish churches, and in chapels, it is best that these rites be celebrated only if this can be done worthily - that is to say, with an appropriate number of ministers, with the possibility of singing at least some parts of the liturgy, and with a sufficiently large congregation of the faithful. Otherwise, it is best that these liturgies be celebrated only in parish churches and in other more important churches.

The Pastors should take care to instruct the faithful on the meaning and structure of the rites enacted in these days, and so lead them to an active and fruitful celebration.

Palm Sunday

1. Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, a day on which the Church enters upon the mystery of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Lord, brings together the triumphal procession of Christ as King and the proclamation of his Passion. Both aspects of the paschal mystery should be explained in the catechesis of the day.

2. The Lord's entry into Jerusalem is commemorated by means of a solemn procession. There should be only one such procession, to be celebrated before Mass on either the Saturday evening or on the Sunday itself. The people should gather in a lesser church or in another suitable place outside the church to which the faithful take part in the procession singing and waving branches of the palm tree or other trees in their hands. The priest and his ministers do the same. The branches are blessed by him so that they may be carried in procession, and that they may be devoutly kept in the home so as to call to mind the victory of Christ as celebrated by today's procession.

3. To commemorate the Lord's entry into Jerusalem, apart from the procession, the Missal proposes a solemn entry, to be enacted wherever it is not possible to hold a procession outside the church. This solemn entry is to take place before the main Mass, the faculty of repeating it before another Mass which is habitually celebrated with a large gathering of the people. The Missal also proposes a simple entry, to be enacted at other Masses.

4. The vestments used today are Red. In the procession the priest may wear either the cope or the chasuble.

5. After the procession or the solemn entry, the sign of the cross and the penitential rite or the sprinkling of the congregation with holy water are all omitted from the beginning of Mass and

6. For the spiritual good of the faithful it is appropriate that the narrative of the passion be read in its entirety, without however omitting the other readings which precede it. After the reading of the passion, there should be a homily, even if only a brief one.

7. The narrative of the Lord's Passion is read without candles, incense, initial greeting or marking of the book with the sign of the cross. It is read by the deacon, or in his absence, by a priest. It may be read even by lay readers, the part of Christ being reserved if possible to the priest. Deacon, but not others, recite the prayer Almighty God, cleanse my heart.... and ask a blessing from the priest, as is usually done before the Gospel. At the end is said the Gospel of the Lord, but the book is not kissed.

 8. Where it is not possible to celebrate Mass, there should be held a liturgy of the Word about the Lord's messianic entry and his Passion, either on the Saturday evening or at a suitable time on the Sunday.

1. Only the Chrism Mass and the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper may be celebrated today. Mass may not be celebrated without a congregation, nor may funeral Masses be celebrated.

2. Holy Communion may only be distributed to the faithful during the Chrism Mass and the Mass of the Lord's Supper. However, those who communicate in the morning may communicate again at the Mass of the Lord's Supper. The sick may receive communion at any hour of the day.

1. The Chrism Mass, which the bishop celebrates with his presbyterium, and at which the oils are blessed, manifests the communion of the priests with their bishop. For at this Mass priests gather and concelebrate, coming from the different parts of the diocese, as witnesses at the consecration of the chrism and as fellow workers of their bishop, in whose sacred ministry for the building up, sanctification and government of the people of God they participate. Thus is manifested in a clear way the unity of the priesthood and the sacrifice of Christ living on in the Church. The faithful, too, should regularly take part and receive the Eucharist at this Mass.

2. The newly blessed Oils should be borne with honour to the parish churches. The old Oils should be burned or poured into the Blessed Sacrament lamp. The reception of the Sacred Oils may suitably take place before the Mass of the Lord's Supper or at another suitable moment. The faithful should, however, be instructed on the use of the sacred Oils and their efficaciousness in the Christian life.

N.B. If there are notable difficulties which prevent clergy and people gathering with the Bishop on this day, it is permissible to anticipate the blessing of the Holy Oils on another day, on condition that the day chosen is close to Easter and that the proper Mass is used (cf. Order of Blessing of Holy Oils, n. 10).

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

Christ accomplished the work of redemption and the perfect glorification of God principally through his paschal mystery, in which dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Hence the sacred Easter Triduum of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection shines forth as the culmination of the whole liturgical year (LY 18).

1. By the celebration of the Easter Triduum, that is, of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Spouse, the Church means to make present and to fulfil the mystery of the Pasch, the passing over of the Lord from this world to the Father.

In accordance with the tradition of the early Church, the sacred Easter fast should be celebrated on Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and even, if suitable, extended to Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Lord's Resurrection may be arrived at with alert and open mind (Sc. 110).

2. The celebration of the sacred Triduum should be held only where they may be enacted with dignity and decorum.

It is appropriate, therefore, that small religious communities come together in more important churches, so as to foster participation of the faithful. Likewise the faithful from a number of lesser parishes in the care of a single priest should, if possible, gather in the main church of the area to take part in the sacred rites.

Where, however, two or more parishes are entrusted to the care of a single parish priest, each parish having a considerable congregation of faithful and the possibility of performing the celebrations with dignity and solemnity, the parish priest has the faculty to repeat the celebrations of the Easter Triduum, with due regard for other norms.

3. It is highly recommended that there be a celebration in common of the Office of Readings and of Lauds on Good Friday and Holy Saturday, so that the Christian Community may meditate more efficaciously and more fully upon the Passion, in expectation of the proclamation of the Resurrection.

Resp : 116:12-13, 15-18

2 R : 1 Cor 11:23-26

Gos : Jn 13:1-15

1. With this Mass, celebrated in the evening of Maundy Thursday, the Church inaugurates the sacred Easter Triduum, aims at recalling that last supper, when the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, loving those who were his own in the world until the very end, offered his Body and Blood under the species of bread and wine to God and under these symbols, gave them to his Apostles that they might consume them, and ordered them and their successors in the priesthood to offer them.

By means especially of the homily, attention should be focussed upon the mysteries which are commemorated in this Mass, namely the institution of the Eucharist and that of the priestly Order, together with the Lord's command of brotherly love.

2. The Mass of the Lord's Supper is to be celebrated in the evening, at the most appropriate hour, with the full participation of the whole local community.

Priests who have already concelebrated at the Chrism Mass, or who are obliged to celebrate another Mass for the faithful, may also concelebrate at the Mass of the Lord's Supper. In accordance with a most ancient tradition of the Church, the celebration of Mass without a congregation is prohibited today.

3. Where pastoral reasons urge it, the local Ordinary may permit another Mass to be celebrated in churches and chapels in the evening and even, in case of real need, in the morning, but in this latter case only for the sake of those faithful who cannot in any way take part at the evening Mass. Let care be taken lest any celebration of this kind be undertaken for the advantage of private individuals and lest it prejudice the evening Mass.
4. The Tabernacle should be empty. Hosts should be consecrated at the Mass for the communion of the clergy and people today and tomorrow.
5. It is fitting that for the reservation of the Eucharist to serve for communion tomorrow, a chapel should be arranged in which prayer and meditation may be fostered, but it is also highly recommended that all be marked by that austerity which is appropriate to these days.

If the Blessed Sacrament is normally reserved in a chapel separate from the central nave of the church, the place of reposition and of adoration may suitably be set up there.

The Blessed Sacrament should be reserved, however, in a closed tabernacle, exposition in a monstrance being absolutely excluded. Nor should the tabernacle in any way have the appearance of a tomb, and the term “tomb” or “sepulchre” should be avoided, since the chapel of reservation is not intended to represent the Lord’s tomb, but only to reserve the Blessed Sacrament for communion the next day.

6. While the Glory to God in the highest...is being sung, the bells are rung. From the end of this hymn the bells are then silent until the Easter Vigil.
7. The washing of feet, which according to the tradition for this day is done for a select number of persons, shows forth the service and the love of Christ, who came not to be served but to serve. It is appropriate that this tradition be maintained and its true meaning be explained.
8. In the procession bearing the gifts it is fitting that there be included the gifts destined for the poor, especially gifts which have been collected during Lent as the fruits of penance. While this happens the hymn where charity and love... is sung.

9. At the end of the prayer after communion, the procession makes its way through the church with incense and candles, bearing the Eucharist to the chapel of reservation.
10. At the end of today's celebration, the altar is privately stripped and if possible all crosses are taken away from the church. It is appropriate that any crosses remaining in the church be veiled, if they have not already been veiled by decision of the Episcopal Conference.
11. The faithful should be reminded to spend a suitable length of time during the night, according to circumstances of time and place, in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament reserved, in such a way, however, that after midnight the adoration takes place without solemnity.
12. The procession and the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament should not take place in churches where it is not intended to celebrate the solemn Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.

Vespers are not recited by those who take part in the evening Mass. Compline as after Second Vespers of Sunday.

Good Friday of the Passion of the Lord is a day of penance for the whole Church, to be marked by fasting and abstinence from Meat.

18 Red, Good Friday of the Passion of the Lord. The Liturgy of the Hours is celebrated with the special features indicated in the Proper of Time. 1. On this day, when Christ our paschal Lamb was sacrificed, the Church contemplates and adores the Cross of her Lord and Spouse, commemorating her own coming forth from the side of Christ as he slept on the Cross, and interceding for the salvation of all the world.
 2. According to a most ancient tradition, the Church does not celebrate the Eucharist on this day. Holy Communion is distributed to the faithful only within the celebration of the Lord's Passion, but it may be brought at any hour of the day to the sick who cannot participate in this celebration.
 3. There should be no celebration of the Sacraments today, with the exception of the Sacraments of Penance and Anointing of the Sick. Funerals should be conducted without singing and without organ music or the ringing of bells.
 4. The celebration of the Lord's Passion is to take place in the afternoon, round about 3 p.m. If, however, genuine pastoral reasons require it, the celebration may take place at a more suitable time, but not before noon and not after 9 p.m.
 5. The whole liturgy should be conducted according to the prescriptions of the liturgical books. No one should introduce any changes on his own initiative.
 6. The altar should be bare and devoid of cloths, cross and candlesticks.
 7. For the reading of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, see the notes given above for Palm Sunday (cf. no. 7).
 8. The cross which is shown to the people and proffered for adoration should be sizeable and of certain beauty. The formula for the showing of the cross and the people's response should be sung. For reasons of appropriate symbolism, there should be a single cross for adoration but care should be taken that the individual faithful are able to adore the cross, a feature of great importance in today's celebration. The rite by which the cross is adored in silence by the whole congregation as a body should be used only if the faithful are present in very large numbers.

9. After the celebration of the Lord's Passion, the Blessed Sacrament should be carried back in a simple way to the place of reservation and kept there with the usual lamp burning. The altar should be stripped in private, leaving however the cross and candlesticks. It is fitting that a place be arranged (as, for example, the chapel used for reposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the previous evening), suitable for prayer and meditation, and that the cross be placed there to be adored by the faithful.
10. Of great significance are also popular devotional exercises that are of pastoral importance, such as the Stations of the Cross, processions of the Lord's Passion, the commemoration of the Sorrows of Our Lady. Their texts and sung parts should be in harmony with the liturgy, and should lead the people to true liturgical participation.

Vespers are not recited by those who take part in the celebration of the Lord's Passion.

Compline as after Second Vespers of Sunday.

19 Holy Saturday

The Liturgy of the Hours is celebrated with the special features indicated in the Proper of Time. It is highly appropriate that the Office of Readings and Lauds be celebrated in solemn fashion with the people (IH. 210).

Compline as after second Vespers of Sunday. However, it is omitted by those who are present at the Easter Vigil.

1. On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb, meditating upon his passion, death and descent into Hell, awaiting in prayer and fasting his Resurrection.

2. If it is not possible to celebrate the Office of Readings and Lauds with the people's participation, there should be a celebration of the Word of God or some devotional exercise appropriate to today's mystery, especially one that honours the Blessed Virgin Mary for her sharing in Passion of her Son.
3. An image of Christ Crucified or laid in the tomb may be set up in the Church for the veneration of the faithful, or else a portrayal of his descent into Hell, such as casts light upon the mystery commemorated by Holy Saturday, or an image of Our Lady of Sorrows.
4. Today the Church abstains completely from the celebration of the Eucharist. Holy Communion may only be given in the form of Viaticum. There should be no celebration of Matrimony nor of the other sacraments, except for Penance and the Anointing of the Sick.
5. The faithful should be instructed concerning the special character of the day. Festive practices linked to the former anticipated celebration of Easter on Holy Saturday should be restricted to Easter Night and Easter Sunday itself.

EASTER TIME

The fifty days from Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection until Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one single feastday, as "Great Sunday". It is on these days in particular that the Alleluia is sung (cf. LY, 22).

20 (W)

EASTER SUNDAY

THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD, solemnity with octave.

Easter Vigil.

1. By a most ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil for the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, commemorating that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the “Mother of all holy vigils.” For in this night the Church awaits in vigil the Resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates it with the sacraments of Christian initiation. The Christian tradition has however always recognized its character of expectation of the Lord’s coming again.
 2. The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil must take place by night, so that it begins after nightfall and ends before daybreak on the Sunday. The practice of celebrating the Easter Vigil on the Saturday evening at the time when the Sunday Vigil Masses are habitually celebrated is to be censured. The whole of the celebration is, moreover, so to be arranged that its nature as a protracted Vigil is safeguarded.
 3. The celebration of a Mass without the rites of the Easter Vigil is not allowed.
 4. The Easter Vigil may be celebrated even in churches and oratories where the liturgies of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday have not taken place, but on the other hand the Vigil is not of obligation when they have. The celebration of the Vigil is, however, compulsory where there is a baptismal font.
 5. Throughout the whole Vigil liturgy, as also at the Mass, the sacred ministers should wear white vestments.
 6. Tonight’s vigil should be so arranged that after the brief Liturgy of Light or lucernarium (which is the first part of the Vigil), the Church meditates on the marvels the Lord God wrought for his people from the very beginning and strengthens by his Word and his promise (the second part of the Vigil, or Liturgy of the Word), until the moment when with the approaching Day of the Resurrection, together with her new members reborn in baptism (third part), she is called to the table which the Lord spread out for his people by means of his Death and Resurrection (Fourth part). The whole Easter Vigil proceeds by means of symbols and rites which call for a certain grandeur and dignity, in order that the faithful may grasp their meaning, prompted even by the words of the commentaries, invitations and prayers. It is fitting in particular that the faithful be introduced by means of a brief introduction to the understanding of the typological meaning of the Old Testament readings proclaimed during the Vigil.

7. As regards the blessing of the fire, in so far as possible a large fire should be prepared outside the church, such that its flames may truly scatter the darkness and light up the night.
8. The paschal candle, for effective symbolism, should be made of wax, of one piece, and of a considerable size, and be renewed every year. For it must represent the figure of Christ who as the True Light, illuminates the whole world. The candle should be blessed with the words and gestures laid down by the liturgical books or which have been prescribed by the Episcopal Conference.
9. The Easter Proclamation or Exultet may be sung, in case of necessity, even by a cantor who is not a deacon, but in this event the cantor does not receive a blessing from the celebrant, and the second part of the invitation is omitted (My dearest friends, standing with me.) as is the greeting The Lord be with you.

It is possible to sing either the longer or the shorter form.

10. At least three readings are to be proclaimed from the Old Testament, and even in urgent circumstances at least two. The reading from the Book of Exodus is never to be omitted. The series of readings for the Vigil is as follows:

1 R	: Gen 1:1 – 2:2 (or 1:1, 26-31)
Resp	: Ps104:1-2, 5-6, 10, 12-14, 24, 35
Or Ps	: Ps33:4-7, 12-13, 20, 22
2 R	: Gen 22:1-18 (or 22:1-2, 9, 10-13, 15-18)
Resp	: Ps16:5, 8-11

3 R	: Ex 14:15 – 15:1
Res	: Ex 15:1-6, 17-18
4 R	: Is 54:5-14
Resp	: Ps30:2, 4-6, 11-13
5 R	: Is 55:1-11
Res	: Is 12:2-6
6 R	: Bar 3:9-15, 32 – 4:4
Resp	: Ps19:8-11
7 R	: Ez 36:16-28
Resp	: 42:3, 5; 43:3-4Or: Is 12:2-6 or Ps 51:12-15, 18-19 Or: when there is a Baptism, Is 12 as above (cf. after reading 5).
8 R	: Rom 6:3-11
Resp	: Ps118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23
Gos.	: Lk24:1-12

11. The Baptismal Liturgy of the Easter Vigil reaches its fullest form when the baptism of adults, or at least of children, is celebrated. However, even when the sacrament of baptism is not celebrated, in parish churches the baptismal water should be blessed. In cases where there are neither baptisms nor blessing of the font, the sacrament of baptism should be recalled by the blessing of water, with which the faithful are then sprinkled after having renewed their baptismal promises.

12. For the proclamation of the Gospel reading at Mass, incense may be used, but lights are not carried.

13. It is fitting that the fullness of the Eucharistic signs be attained in the Easter Vigil by means of communion under both kinds. It pertains to the local Ordinaries to consider the suitability and the circumstances of such a concession and to lay down appropriate norms.

14. The Mass of the Vigil is the Easter Mass of the Lord's Resurrection. Any priest celebrating or concelebrating the Vigil Mass in the night may celebrate or concelebrate a second Easter Mass the next morning.

Other celebrations are not permitted, not even funeral Masses.

1. The Mass of Easter Day should be celebrated with great solemnity. At this Mass, in place of the opening penitential rites, all are sprinkled with water blessed on Easter Night, to recall their baptism.

2. The paschal candle, which should be placed near the ambo or near the altar, and kept there for the whole Easter season until the end of Pentecost Sunday. It should be lit for the more solemn liturgical celebrations, namely Mass, Lauds and Vespers, during this time. 3. Where is it still the practice, the custom of celebrating baptismal Vespers on Easter Sunday should be diligently maintained, and where it is not the practice it should whenever possible be introduced. At this celebration of Vespers psalms are sung and there is a procession to the font (IH. 213).

Today, and throughout the whole Octave, Sunday Compline (as after either First or Second Vespers), with the antiphon Haec dies, instead of the short responsory.

Instead of the Angelus prayer The Angel of the Lord..., for the whole Easter season the antiphon Queen of Heaven rejoice, alleluia. is recited.

27 White, Octave Day of Easter,

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (or Sunday of Divine Mercy).

LH of this Sunday.

✠ Mass of Sunday, Gloria, optional sequence, Creed, with proper Preface and proper inserts of Easter for the Eucharistic Prayer I.

1 R : Acts 5:12-16

Resp : 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

2 R : Rv 1:9-13, 17-19

Gos : Jn 20:19-31

Other celebrations are not permitted, not even funeral Masses. Second Vespers of Sunday. Compline of Sunday.

The Easter Time:

1. When an optional memorial falls on a weekday of the Easter season, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the saint who is inscribed for that day in the calendar or in the Martyrology (IH, 244; IM, 355b).
2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for various needs and intentions and votive Masses be celebrated (IM. 376).
Daily Masses for the dead are prohibited. (IM. 381).
3. In the weekday Office, the Invitatory antiphon, the hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, and the antiphon at the Mid Day Hour are taken from those prescribed for the season.

 4. To the antiphons is added “Alleluia”, unless this is already present, or unless it does not well accord with the sense of the words.²⁷

PENTECOST SUNDAY, solemnity

The fifty days of the Sacred season of Easter conclude with Pentecost Sunday, when the Church recalls the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, the beginnings of the Church and the start of her mission to all tongues and peoples and nations.

It is fitting that the Vigil Mass of Pentecost be celebrated in a more ample form, using the readings and prayers to be found in the liturgical books. This Mass, however, unlike the Easter Vigil, does not have a baptismal character, but instead is a celebration of more intense prayer, after the example of the Apostles and the disciples, who together with Mary the Mother of Jesus were one in persevering prayer, as they awaited the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

7 Red Saturday evening, For the Vigil: Mass Proper to the Vigil, Gloria, Creed, with proper Preface and proper inserts of Pentecost for the Eucharistic Prayer I.

Gos : Jn 7:37-39

First Vespers of Pentecost Sunday. Compline as after First Vespers of Sunday.

In churches where the Vigil Mass is celebrated in extended form, the following readings are proposed as options, followed after the Gloria and Collect, by the reading from Rom 8:22-27

3 R : Ez 37:1-14

Ps : 106:2-9

4 R : Joel 2:28-32

Ps : 104:1-2, 24, 27-30, 35

The manner in which this Mass begins and the orations which are recited after each reading are found set out in their proper place in the current English Missal.

After Pentecost Sunday the Easter Candle is kept with honour in the Baptistry, so that from its flame the candles of the baptized may be lit during their Baptism. At funerals the Easter Candle should be placed near the bier, to signify that christian death is a true Pasch.

Outside the Easter Time the Paschal candle should not be kept in the Sanctuary nor should it be lit.

As from tomorrow the recitation of the The Angel of the Lord. resumes.

ORDINARY TIME

PAPAL INTENTION :

HOLY FATHER'S GENERAL INTENTION

General: For formation in discernment.

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE SUPERIOR GENERAL

That the Lord who healed the sick and raised the dead may grant healing to the sick and the suffering members of our Congregation, our benefactors, and our family members. We pray to the Lord.

HOLY FATHER'S GENERAL INTENTION

General: For mutual coexistence.

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious or ideological reasons.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE SUPERIOR GENERAL

That the Lord may bless the Fransalian Associates, our benefactors, well-wishers, and friends who greatly assist us in our lives and mission. We pray to the Lord.

On 2 August, or on another day determined by the Ordinary for the convenience of the people, the plenary indulgence traditionally called the "Portiuncula" indulgence may be acquired in minor basilicas, shrines and parish churches. The practices prescribed for the obtaining of the indulgence are a devout visit to a church and the recitation there of the Lord's Prayer and the Profession of Faith (Our Father and Creed), and in addition a sacramental confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff. This indulgence may be acquired only once. The visit may be made from noon the previous day until midnight of the day itself (Enchiridion of Indulgences, 1999 edition, Concession 33).

Advent from 17 to 24 December

1. The weekdays of Advent from 17 to 24 December take precedence over the memorials of Saints, which may therefore be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books
2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it may an appropriate Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (cf. IM 374).

Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited (cf. IM 381).

3. In the Liturgy of the Hours:

- a) The Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, are taken from those prescribed for the season.
- b) Proper antiphons are assigned for the weekday psalms at Lauds and Vespers.

4. In Eucharistic celebrations likewise proper readings are given for the days from 17 to 24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third or fourth week of advent.
